

LeRoy D. Simmons

LeRoy Dillworth Simmons, age 87, died March 11, 1987, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Born July 20, 1899, Salt Lake City to Joseph Franklin and Alice Eliza Dye Simmons. Married Helen Spencer Felt October 5, 1927. Salt Lake LDS Temple. She preceded him in death on March 2, 1987. Public retations director for the Salt Lake Tribune and IML. First Lt. in U.S. Army during WWI and WWII. Active member of the LDS Church, having served as ward clerk and member of High Council, Salt Lake Emigration Stake. Received the Silver Beaver Award from the Boy Scouts of America. His life of service includes coordinating fund drives for the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, Ballet West, voter-turnout campaigns, and the Youth Tobacco Advisory Council. Survived by daughter, Mrs. Paul Y. (Mervyn) Hammond, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; sons, LeRoy Dillworth Simmons, Jr., Birmingham, Alabama; Ronald F. Simmons, Salt Lake City, Utah; and eight grandchildren. Funeral services Monday, March 16th, 12 noon, 27th Ward, 185 P Street, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Interment, Salt Lake City Cemetery under the direction of Lar-kin Mortuary.

N3 3/13

T 3/13